

Invites you to a webinar

Community Engagement in times of COVID-19: Is it Possible?

2:00 PM – 3:30 PM GMT

Wednesday, December 2, 2020

TIME ZONE CONVERTER

Join us for a 90-minute session featuring:

Dr. Julieta Mazzola

Technical Coordinator
Community Development Program & Professor at EARTH University

Dr. Rabih Shibli

Director of the Center of Civic Engagement &
Community Service at the American University of Beirut

Dr. Felipe Gonzalez & Dr. Gonzalo Quetz Aquire

Technological Institute
Superior of Calkiní, State of Campeche, Mexico

Dr. Walter Odongo

Lecturer at the Faculty of Agriculture and Environment of Gulu
University in Uganda

Moderated by: Dr. Jim French

Transforming Higher Education
Project Director, American University of Beirut

Topics of discussion:

Overview of community engagement & the experience in a service-learning course at EARTH University during COVID-19

Challenges and Lessons learned by the American University of Beirut, Gulu University in Uganda and the Technological Institute of Higher Education at Calkini, Mexico

REGISTER HERE